TERMS OF SALE

Applicant(s) is offering to buy a right of inurnment in the Columbarium at Northminster Presbyterian Church (“Northminster”) located at 1660 Kessler Blvd. East Drive, Indianapolis, Indiana. The right purchased will entitle Applicant(s) to reserve one niche in the Columbarium.

Northminster will sell the right of inurnment to Applicant(s) upon determining that Applicant(s) is (are) an eligible purchaser(s) under Northminster’s Columbarium Rules and upon Applicant(s)’s full payment of the purchase price.

Northminster will assign to Applicant(s) the specific niche requested in the application if the niche is still available. If not available, Applicant(s) will select a niche from those still available.

Northminster will issue to Applicant(s) a Certificate of Right of Inurnment In Northminster Presbyterian Church Columbarium for the niche for which Applicant(s) has (have) purchased a right of inurnment.

This sale and purchase are subject to the terms of the Columbarium Rules adopted at any time by the Session of Northminster. Applicant(s) acknowledges receipt of a copy of the current Columbarium Rules.

This sale and purchase do not convey to Applicant(s) any property interest in any niches, the Columbarium, or any other property of Northminster, other than a right of inurnment in the niche specified. In addition, Northminster does not represent that it will continue to operate as a church, either at its present location or at all, or continue to maintain the Columbarium in perpetuity. In the event Northminster ceases operation of the Columbarium for any reason, the Columbarium Rules of Northminster shall determine the disposition of cremated remains in the Columbarium.
