

The staff of Northminster Church extends sympathy to you on the loss of your loved one. We hope the funeral or memorial service you have at our church gives you comfort.

Your Family May Wish . . .

Pastor

Our pastors conduct the service for members of Northminster Presbyterian Church as a part of their ministry.

You may select either of our pastors to conduct the service. Should you desire the participation of any other persons, our clergy will extend the invitation.

Music

The church organist is Marko Petričić. If he is not available to play for the memorial or funeral, we will find a replacement if you wish. We can secure a soloist for your service.

Bulletin

If the service is held at Northminster, we will prepare a worship bulletin. There is no charge for this service.

Visitation

You may wish to receive friends and relatives before or after the service in the Gathering Place. We will provide coffee, tea and lemonade. We will help with food set-up but all food is provided by the family.

If you desire visitation the day before the service there is an additional fee.

Lunch or Reception

If the family would like to have a meal at the church prior to or following the service we will provide a list of caterers.

Memorial Gifts

We will provide envelopes if you wish to have memorial gifts made to the church. The pastors can explain the options available.

Fees

Member $350

Includes fees for organist, funeral coordinator, building use and custodial services. This fee does not include honorarium for pastor.

Non-Member $1000

Includes fees for organist, funeral coordinator, building use, custodial services and pastor.

Possible additional fees

Soloist	$100
Sound technician	$ 50
Additional visitation time	$100
